

Thought Starters for this Sunday's Message:

This Sunday's message is the second in our series on the Book of Deuteronomy, and it's called Remember! I encourage you to read Deuteronomy, perhaps a chapter a day, while we are in the series, and to reflect upon what Moses teaches in it. Here are some questions to prompt your thinking in preparation for this Sunday's message:

Read Deuteronomy Chapters 1-3 and do the following:

- Make note of each event Moses recounted for the Israelites, and consider what spiritual lesson they were to learn from each one of them.
- What did they Israelites do right that Moses mentioned?
- What sin did the Israelites repeatedly commit while in the desert?
- What was Moses' point in recounting his own failure and God's discipline of him in Chapter Three?
- Assuming Moses repented of his disobedience and asked God's forgiveness, why did God still not allow him to enter the Promised Land?
