

Thought Starters for this Sunday's Message:

This Sunday's message is the third in our series on the Book of Deuteronomy, and it's called Bad Math. I encourage you to read Deuteronomy, perhaps a chapter a day, while we are in the series, and to reflect upon what Moses teaches in it. Here are some questions to prompt your thinking in preparation for this Sunday's message:

---

Read Deuteronomy 4:1-2, and then think about your answers to the following questions:

1. What does it mean to not add to our subtract from God's commands.
2. What harm is done when a person violates that prohibition?
3. What are some ways we can add to and subtract from Scripture, either deliberately or unconsciously?
4. What are some precautions we can take to prevent ourselves from adding to or subtracting from the teachings and commands of the Bible?
